

Preventing Workplace Violence: How Not to Be a Victim of an Active Shooter

Hour one

Participants will learn:

- The Tactical Mindset: Living in Code Yellow
- Applying the Tactical Mindset for a safer workplace

Hour two

Participants will learn:

- Assessing workplace security vulnerabilities
- Deter, Detect, Deny

Hours three-four

Participants will learn:

- National Standard of Run, Hide, Fight, but with a “twist”
- How to recognize the sound of gunfire (blank rounds) inside their facility
- Practical skills to deal with an active killer inside their facility
- Dynamic skills by actually fighting an aggressor in a Red Man Suit

The Presenter:

Ken Alexandrow - founder of AGAPE Tactical, retired after 26 years serving the citizens of middle Tennessee as a career police officer. In 1991 Mr. Alexandrow graduated from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville with a degree in Political Science. Mr. Alexandrow began his career as a patrol officer and was appointed to the Metro Nashville Police Academy as a confrontation management and firearms instructor. Throughout his career in law enforcement, Officer Alexandrow served on several elite units as well as volunteered for various special assignments including the opportunity to serve on the FBI Violent Crimes Task Force. He concluded his career as a Field Training Officer where he had the opportunity to supervise and train new police officers on how to apply their academy knowledge to real-life situations on the street.

Proverbs 22:3 “A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge, but the simple keep going and suffer for it.”